is the belief that a couple of days
be sufficient to so reduce the fire, does not put it out entirely, to perof the laying of the pipe line in the level of the Bullion-Beck to a nt where water can be got to the suldering embers. Discussing the se of so much poisonous gas result-from the fire, an old-time Bullionion giant powder had played no unportant part.

During the years which I worked the mine," said he, "I know it was rule for great numbers of the emyes to take powder into the workings t hide it where it would be handy to when they might need it. The men te it and hide it somewhere else, Be-e it was needed, oftentimes, the man men might be ordered to other parts the mine, lose their jobs, etc., and, a result, the old workings have un-ibtedly been abandoned with many ndreds, if not thousands, of pounds powder thus concealed about them, om this powder, I believe, has come greater portion of the fumes that we made it dangerous for men to rk in the affected portions of the poerties."
